

EASTERN OKLAHOMA DISTRICT LIBRARY SYSTEM

MEETING ROOM POLICY

The Meeting rooms of the Eastern Oklahoma District Library System facilities are primarily intended to support the goals of the public libraries of the system; to further the cultural, informational and educational needs of the people of the EODLS region. In providing free meeting space for public use, the Libraries of the System support the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights, which states:

“Libraries which maintain meeting rooms, exhibit space, or other facilities open to the public should make them available on equal terms to all persons, regardless of their beliefs or affiliations.”

REGULATIONS REGARDING USE OF THE MEETING ROOMS

EODLS provides Large Meeting rooms which seat more than ten people and Small Meeting rooms which seat ten people or less.

1. All meetings in the Large Meeting rooms must be open to the public.
2. Organizations and Businesses may book meeting rooms. Individuals may book Small Meeting rooms.
3. Individuals may not use rooms for personal social functions.
4. There will be no charge to groups for the use of the meeting rooms, but donations are accepted.
5. No admission charge may be made for any function held in the library's meeting rooms.
6. Organizations are allowed to book meetings for one year at a time. A meeting date may be booked up to one year in advance.
7. Alcohol and smoking are not permitted in EODLS libraries.
8. Library rooms will not be reserved to groups for activities that are likely to disturb regular library functions, i.e. playing loud music or making loud noises.

9. All groups are responsible for the repair or replacement of missing or damaged equipment or facilities.
10. The Library reserves the right to refuse use of the meeting rooms to any group that violates any of the above regulations.
11. Programs sponsored or co-sponsored by the individual Library or Library System may be exempt from the rules as outlined above.
12. Meetings using OKConnect Video-Conferencing equipment may be exempt from the rules as outlined above.
13. The Library and/or Library System's programs are given precedence when booking rooms. The Library reserves the right to reschedule other meetings when the rooms are needed for Library purposes.

LIABILITY

The Eastern Oklahoma District Library System and the individual libraries are not responsible for accidents, injury or loss of individual property while using library facilities.

Use of the library meeting rooms by any group in no way constitutes endorsement of that group's policies or activities by the branch or the Eastern Oklahoma District Library System.
